Report

Anti-Ragging committee 2022-2023

Our college is highly interested in the welfare of the students. Ragging is strictly prohibited in our college. An awareness program is given to the students on behalf of anti-ragging on two schedules (03/08/22 and 3/10/22). Students were imparted with the knowledge of existence and role of anti-ragging committee in the college.

Students were asked to feel free to contact any of the committee member incase if they meet with any ragging issue. They were told about separate complaint box fixed in the college for the grievances regarding ragging.

Students were made to take an online anti-ragging undertaking in the anti-ragging portal. For that the students were assisted by giving a model registration pdf prepared by the anti-ragging committee. Also students were asked to submit the print outs of their anti-ragging affidavit and their parent's undertaking to the committee.

Posters regarding anti-ragging are displayed in various places within the college campus to create awareness.

During the I year admission the students and parents are supposed to take separate undertaking which insists on code of conduct for the students of Sourashtra college. In that undertaking under 3rd criteria, the first regulation is regarding the prohibition of ragging and it is clearly stated that this rule is applicable in classroom, hostel, ground, canteen everywhere within the campus.

Anti-ragging toll-free number is imprinted in the ID card of every student.
